In 2021-2022 and 2024, Caspar was Counsel Assisting inquiries into The Star by Adam Bell SC.

Before coming to the Bar, Caspar was an Associate to Justice Callinan AC at the High Court of Australia in 2006 and practised as a solicitor at Allens, where he was made Senior Associate and was seconded to the investment bank UBS AG in 2011.

AWARDS

In 2019, the Commissioner of the Australian Federal Police awarded Caspar a Group Citation for Conspicuous Conduct in recognition of "outstanding excellence in approach and tenacity over seven years of hard fought litigation” and “upholding the values of the Australian Federal Police and objectives of the Proceeds of Crime Act thereby ensuring an excellent return to the Confiscated Assets Account”.

In 2005, while completing his undergraduate studies, Caspar won the Australian Institute of Administrative Law’s public essay prize.

WHAT OTHERS SAY

Australian Bar Legal 500 (2024), Commercial disputes:

Caspar is a pleasure to work with – professional, a team player, hard-working and insightful. Caspar does an excellent job of cross-examining company director witnesses.

Australian Bar Legal 500 (2022), Commercial disputes:

Caspar is extremely easy to work with, hard-working and judicious. His drafting is excellent and his decision-making is first-rate – particularly as to tactical matters. His advocacy is economical and effective and he reads judges very well – knowing exactly what they want to hear from him.
