Admitted to the legal profession
2009

Admitted as a barrister in NSW
2013

Also entitled to practise in Australian jurisdictions (Commonwealth,
State and Territory)

Courtney Ensor practises principally in corporate and commercial law, with a specialisation in tax law. Courtney's background in pure mathematics is particularly valuable in these areas.

Courtney appears in civil and criminal trials and appeals across the country. She is a trusted advocate with over 15 years of experience in litigation, including significant in-Court expertise, both led and unled. Courtney is experienced in managing large teams of lawyers, experts and stakeholders in complex matters to deliver successful outcomes. She represents both commercial and government clients in Federal and State courts and tribunals.

In 2024, Courtney successfully completed the Australian Bar Association Advanced Trial Advocacy Intensive (a 5-day residential course specialising in advanced trial advocacy).

In the Asia Pacific Australia Bar Legal 500, Courtney is ranked as a Leading Junior in Commercial Disputes (2022-2025), where she was acknowledged for "Her strengths are: intelligence, hardworking, eye for detail, initiative where she sees things needed to be done. Advocacy skills are strong – I've seen her do cross-examinations involving complex financial arrangements with clarity and confidence" (2022); "Courtney is an extremely hard-working, well organised and diligent advocate, with a breadth of commercial disputes experience" (2023); "Courtney is extremely thorough and precise" and "knowledgeable of the law." (2024); and "Courtney is always very well-prepared and thorough. She has a strong work ethic and is a dream to work with" (2025).

In Chambers & Partners Asia-Pacific Guide 2025, Courtney is ranked for Tax where a respondent recognised that "she is very proactive and very efficient in the way she gets through work".

Courtney is also ranked as a leading tax junior in Doyles Guide (2017-2025) and World Tax (in association with the International Tax Review) (2017-2026), and recognised in Best Lawyers for Tax Law (2023-2026).
