Nicholas maintains a broad practice in commercial and public law. Since coming to the Bar, his experience has included financial services regulatory proceedings, corporate insolvency, contract, real property, and judicial review and merits review proceedings. He has acted for individuals, insolvency practitioners, small businesses and large corporates in a variety of sectors, as well as for regulators and government agencies.

Nicholas has appeared led at first instance and on appeal in a number of superior and appellate courts, principally in the Federal Court of Australia and Supreme Court of New South Wales. He has also appeared unled in interlocutory hearings in the Federal Court and Supreme Court of New South Wales, and in final hearings in the Local Court of New South Wales and the Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal.

Prior to being called to the Bar, Nicholas was Senior Associate to the Hon Justice Michelle Gordon AC of the High Court of Australia, Associate to the Hon Justice Michael Lee of the Federal Court of Australia, and a solicitor at Herbert Smith Freehills. While a solicitor, he acted in a range of commercial, public law and regulatory disputes, including in the areas of financial services, climate change, class actions and administrative law.

Nicholas graduated with a Juris Doctor (Distinction) from the University of New South Wales.

Before studying law, Nicholas worked for a coffee trading company as a green coffee buyer and operations manager. Prior to that, he was a professional clarinetist and clarinet teacher. He also holds a Bachelor of Music (Performance) with First Class Honours from the Sydney Conservatorium of Music.
